JUDSON COLLEGE Cor., 1900's

"In August, 1884, Captain Milton Humes was elected a member of the house of representatives in the general assembly. During the course of that year, he vigorously advocated the building of a system of macadamized roads in Madison county to be paid for by the issuance of $200,000 of county bonds. He also advocated a radical change in the method and keeping in repair the public roads of the county, and the laying of one tax cent on the dollar for that purpose and the reduction of the road duty of that State to work the public roads from ten to four days each year, with the provision of some expediting the road duty by the payment of two dollars.

Bills embodying these important measures for pavements and reform in building public roads were introduced in the general assembly by Captain Humes, and their passage opposed by May 1885. But if consideration of the people of the county, as he got provided for the issuance of $200,000 county bonds, he provided in the act that it should go into effect and become operative only in case the county sanctioned it by an election held for the purpose.

The election was held and the measure was defeated, some of the most enthusiastic in securing Captain Humes' election, being chiefly instrumental in its defeat.

Opponent's Action

The opponents of the bonds declared that they favored the building of the pikes, but advocated the paying for them as they were built out of the revenue of the county derived from the taxes. "Pay as you go, and no bond debt!" was the slogan.

They succeeded in alarming the ignorant about toll gates, and exciting the fears of some of the property holders to such an extent that the proposed turnpikes were defeated by a large majority. This election was held in November, 1898, and when the people saw the utter futility and impracticability of the plan of building the pikes by a system of direct tax, and the apparent insincerity of those who advocated this method, a mass meeting was held at the county court-house composed of many leading citizens and property holders of the county, at resolutions were adopted favoring the building of the pikes by the bond method, recommending and requesting the members of the general assembly from Madison county to introduce and have passed a bill authorizing the county to build and pay for them by the issuance of the $200,000 of county bonds.
Captain Thomas was made chairman of the meeting and all persons the resolutions which were adopted and also the bill that was read over for the passage by the general assembly, and, at the request of the meeting, went down to Montgomery and urged and aided in the passage of the bill. It was passed, became a law and, as a result Madison county now has 150 miles of free pikes.

MARION, ALABAMA May 16th, 1913

To Whom it may Concern: It gives me pleasure to express my confidence in Miss Ruth Pettus' ability to teach piano.

As a student she has been diligent and earnest and by means of talent, industry and perseverance has succeeded in finishing our piano course and giving a brilliant and artistic public recital.

Her musical and mental qualities and her pleasing personality will combine, I am sure, to produce a successful teacher.

I recommend her most heartily E. L. Powers, Director of Music at Judson College.

because it has already been played there.
I have some others in manuscript but doubt if any of them would answer your purpose. Nearly all my published compositions are sacred things like Te Deums, Veni Las etc. of course they would not do. There is a cradle song for Soprano - Mr.
Allen likes it the best of anything I have written. But it is hard to sing.
I will send you a copy of that. And I will look through my manuscript and if I find a piano piece that might do I'll send it also. If it suits you can copy it and send me the original at your convenience.
I would make you a copy but for two reasons - I dislike copying and I have a good deal to do these next few weeks and prefer not to spend any time that way if I can avoid it. I have been writing some very piano pieces which I think,
