And the plaintiff by his ~~attorney~~ Attorney for replication to the first plea of said defendant says that said deed was not returned as an escrow but as a firm and valid deed and was given for value received of the said plaintiff by said defendant, as is plainly expressed in said deed. Without that that said deed was given as an escrow, to become binding as defendant has expressed. And of this he puts himself upon the country.

the said William Boyce in his joint hereby binds himself, that to the best of his skillabil-ity and judgment, in all matters and things relat-ing to the business of our owner he will use and truly serve himself, and use all possible care and industry - that he will have the plantation cultivated in a husbandlike manner that he will see nothing therefor go to waste
 - or waste of destruction - that he will at all times feel himself bound to act agree-ably to the said Robinsons wishes in all things relating to his employment - It is mutually agreed that if either of the parties to these presents should become dissatisfied that the said Robinson or him, would thereof and give -ing notice to the said Boyce, then his term of service shall expire - For the strict observance of the above stipulations we have ourselves in the presence of our thousand dollars. Witness our
