F & D Corr. 1843
 Personal #9 Series Box 2 Donegan, Weakly, Fearn

found Haddock in his Barnack house 1200/14 Miles & felt improved by the fresh air. I shall walk out this morning & I hope to leave for New York on the 21st or 22nd inst. where I will remain a few days. On my return from there my Physicians will determine if any thing more is necessary to be done & if they should decide on a further operation, I shall be necessarily detained a few days longer. It may so happen that I will be detained later than you had calculated on, but if so, you must have things in such a way as I can understand them & have what you think it prudent for you to do so. I shall make every effort to get off at the earliest day consistent with the object that being at my time. If I should be detained a week or two later than you wish to ~~remain~~ ^{return} I will not be able to suffer much for that period.

The weather has been very changeable since my arrival here. The first few days was quite cold, so much so as to require fire, it was cooled for the first 3 or 4 days after the operation was performed being favorable for me. It has since become very warm & the people are wearing their summer cloaths again. I have not had the slightest fever since I have been operated & feel very little weakened by it.
