outside one. I have been able as yet to do nothing whatever with my low-cottons - they are still too low & dirty for the demand. The stock of clean cottons in the market has been however almost entirely absorbed, & I am in hopes that there will be some demand for the low grades during the next week or two - I am getting anxious to close out, as I would like to pay a visit to all of you at home -

I am very much pleased to learn the action of the board of Directors at Florence with regard to the branch Road at Florence & hope as you say that it may be the means of relieving Uncle Harvey's estate of a very ugly debt. I am without any advice as to the summer in which the road since its completion is fulfilling expectations - I hope however most completely -

Very Respectfully & affectionately yours
Jas. H. Donegan
