

P.S. - 1997 purchase decided to save only the tower, tank & chimney. (Jim) arrow - Develop. - Too bad (Feb. 23 '98)

↑ N

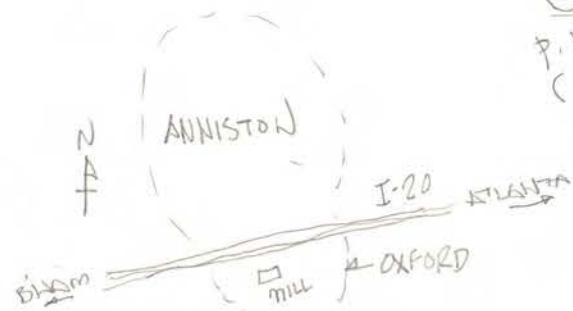

c. 1895 Blue Springs Mill
Oxford, Al. (S. of Anniston)

I-20 west lanes →

p. 1 photos H.P. Jones, FAHA, Huntsville, Jan. '98 for adaptive use study for Al. Hist. Comm.
(A developer plans to demol. mill for a mundane shopping center)

p. 2-10 photos Bob Gamble, A.H.C., fall of 1997.

(P.S., he did)

± 1,400 ft. frontage on I-20
= shopping center site

↑ N

H
←

← Note shopping center signs

H
←

H
←

H
←

P.S. Feb. 23 '98
Owner was not persuaded to save the mill. Will only save the tower (perhaps) - too bad.

One story west wing is a 1920's (steel sashes)

N →

N →

↔ c. 1920's add, (steel sashes)

Orig. wood sashes
 here covered with cheap wood lattice
 panels

N →

N
↓

N
↓

N
↓

← whse, gone by Jan-'98

N
↓

PN

Whse, gone →
by Jan. '98

PN

Nice brick smokestack.
Note taper & flare at top 1/4

PN

SW

Blue Springs

Orig. stair

door to mill

N →

N. Tower, fl. 1 (used as "antiques" sales
 in 1997 & before)

↑N

Tower stair (orig.)

↑N

42
42

heavy timbers to support water tank above

Tower, fl. 2

← roof access hatch

42X

Tower, fl. 2

heavy timber to support
water tank above in top of tower

N ←

Fl. 2 in mill

Fl. 1(?) in mill