

1 of 8

ply. to cover
glass after store closed

N.
↓

Triana Blvd
↙

↙ N

9th Ave ← "lattice-brick" system
cavities
ply. over glass after store closed

1922 J.C. Brown's Store (closed
c.1995)

S.W. corner of Triana Blvd. & 9th. Ave.
Huntsville, AL
photos Mar. 1998
H.P. Jones, F.D.I.A.

Served 2 mill. villages in late 1800's - c.1960 period,
Busy & prosperous operation
in its time

N
↓

J.C. Brown
Store - 1922
Triana & 9th Ave

Perhaps loiterers would sharpen their pocketknives on the brick corners
E. N.E. Corner

E. Grocery Dept

E. Front entry

3058

N

East front entry

Cases at N.E. corner by front entry

N

N

N

Skylit

← N

Looking to W. rear

← N

↳ Candy case

South Wall
Counters
↙ ↘

↳ Publ.-
beaded
1x4 T&G front
← N

← N

548

Stamped metal cell. & cornice timber col. & beam

skn't

skn't

Orig. Dept. (N. camp)

N ←

Gen'l Mds (S. camp)

William Brown (grandson of founder) was told this safe was in the Farmers Office at Bank in the 1896 Humbley Bldg. at E. end of S. side of Square

2 safes at N. wall. Rt. safe still has elaborate pin-stripes paint decoration. Rt. safe reportedly was originally in a bank in the 1896 Humbley Bldg. at the east end of the S. side of the Ct. Hse Sq.

Oiled pine fl., 7' 6" N →

RT S.W. corner of N. bldg

Kerosene pump (tank is buried) - kerosene was main lt. source in early 20th c.

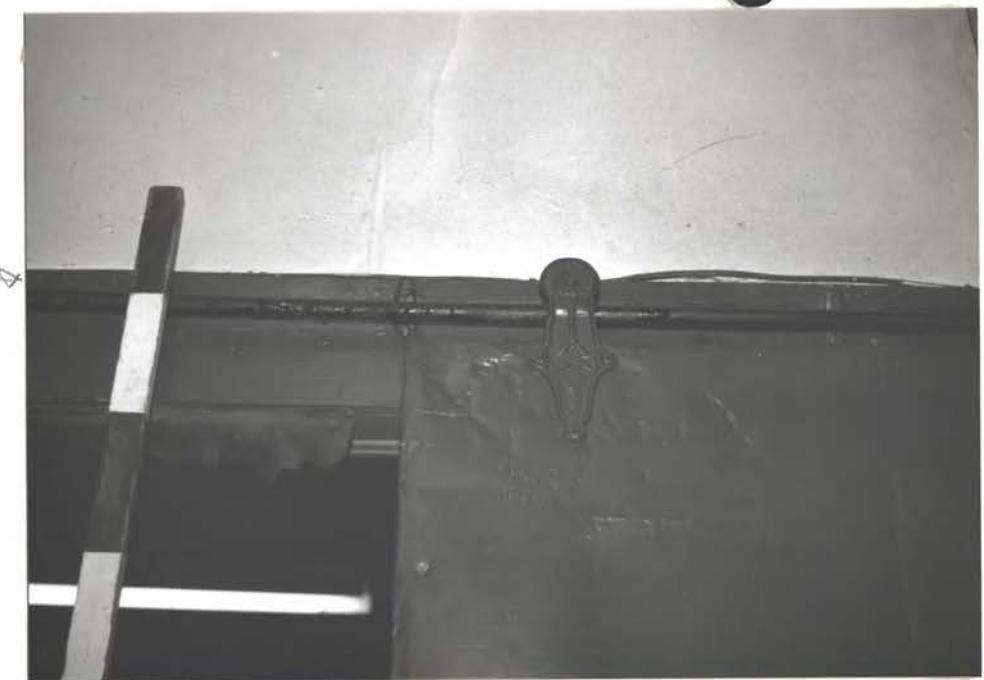

7088

center bldg.
beyond

S.W. corner of
N. bldg.

detail
of door
track

Metals-clad wood fire door separating the N. & Center Bldg.
(N. bldg = store, Center bldg = stock- rm.)

Center
Bldg
(stock)

Skylit

Cast-iron coal-stoves
Early to mid 20th cent.

gumball
machines?
(14 pieces)

Safe

← N
"Fats" brand
stove

Center Bldg