

143
 Single-pen log hse, dismantled 1978
 Given to Burritt Museum by David Byers

This hse later enclosed into a larger hse
 (see furring on chim. & walls etc.)

N. WALL

Photos
 June 1978
 H.P. Jones

S. WALL

ROOF WARE LINE

1/2 mi.

2 ft

N. MEMORIAL PARK

E. GABLE

→ N
 note 2 courses project 11" at shoulder-base
 TYPICAL of 18th c.

← N LIMESTONE CHIM. Blast, CORBELLED

LOG CABIN
 BURRITT MUSEUM

Original Roof framing ↓ deck slabs.
Half-lap ↓ peg jo at rafter ridges

S.W. CORNER - Vee notch

NOTE 2 types of notches on one pen, perhaps

2 diff.
men making jts.

2 west corners =
Vee notch

2 east corners = half-dovetail

half-dovetail
notch (most-typical type)

NE CORNER

chinking (wood billets) daubing (lime + sand) white wash

white wash on logs = orig.
int. fin

Rotary-sawn lath, indicates post-1870 lath

H-4

east fireplace (work is fairly new)
Lath & plaster = post-1870± (rotary-sawn lath)
Note mantel-trace (mantel gone)
Mantel would be post-1870± (lath is beneath)