Dear Sir

Your telegram to Mr. Knox also letter to him and myself received I shall never forget your kindness and I hope you will give me an opportunity to show it

The reason of my urgent request was I owed a bill of 319<sup>00</sup> for shoes which was due on the 10th inst. business is very dull and I saw no way of meeting

same at maturity
and asked you for loan of 750<sup>00</sup> to meet same.

Dunn's Agency report ed us as selling out
and the party no
doubt took freight and sent account to a Shyster Lawyer here
for collection.

Who after agreeing
to wait until maturity of bill. Last night
swore out an attachment, but upon our promise to meet
same today. did not have it served

And saved us the humiliation of being closed up.

That was the only bribe I could, and I shall never forget
your kindness.

Will send you note
in my next.

With Love to you
and family I am

Yours truly
A. Abraham
