

to Marietta to visit my Father's people - for two days - and then we'll leave for Savannah.

Remember us to all the folks and tell Aunt Lilly Harold likes his butterfly so much - and he sends his love with mine to you all -

My dear Uncle - Harold and I want to thank you again for our lovely little stay with you.
We enjoyed meeting your house load so much - and in getting to know you.
We had a horrid trip all the way to Atlanta. The starter jambed in starting from a filling station just out of Chattanooga and delayed us about two hours - so we got into town about four instead of at noon.

I called Theresa and we were going by to see her but we got routed the wrong way and went ten miles out of our course! - By the time we got back it was so late we decided to hurry on to Atlanta.
Between Marietta and here we had the worse fog I'd ever seen - let alone had to drive through! But here we are anyway - and will be for about four days - I am going over
