NEW YORK January 31, 1925

The Dallas Manufacturing Company,
Mr. Oscar Goldsmith, Asst. Treasurer,
Huntsville, Ala.

Dear Mr. Goldsmith:

Your letter of January 29th received, and I think for the present it will be best to continue as we are, if this is agreeable to you.

Since my return to the city, I have been very very busy, otherwise I would have written to you before this to inquire about matters at the mill, but I knew that if things were not running satisfactorily you would advise me. Probably Mr. Winchester or I or both of us will visit Huntsville before long.

Yours very truly,

GHM
