

Goldsmith-Grosser Co

for Men and
Mr. K. Ward-Smith,
Atlanta, Ga.

Ready to Wear

Dear Sir:

In reply to your inquiry of the 17th inst. I beg to state that the Dallas Manufacturing Company, during the year 1917 declared dividend of forty-four per cent out of profits accumulated prior to March 1, 1913. On Sept. 29, 1917, the capital stock of the Dallas Mfg. Co. was one million dollars. The earnings for the year ending Sept. 29, 1917 were four hundred seventy-three thousand one hundred and thirty-five dollars and eight cents. The undivided profits on the same date, amounted to six hundred and ninety-six thousand, eight ninety-nine, ninety-four. The taxes, income sur, and excess profits have not been paid out of these earnings.

We will be glad to have your bid for the stock.

Yours very truly,

Respectfully yours,

Goldsmith-Grosser Co.