Dear Armistead:

As you have no doubt noted, the Nickerson court-martial proceeding has been continued until 25 June 1957. While this would give us sufficient time to examine the highly sensitive material involved, provided it is made available to us at an early date, it will be interesting to watch the Defense Department's timing in the additional clearances that we have requested and the availability of this material to us.

It has occurred to Mr. Jenkins, Colonel Zimmer and Lieutenant Cole that now would be a very fine time to take any action, regardless of how casual or subtle the action, suggestions or comments might be, to the effect that the interest of the country would be infinitely better served if the Army would proceed to give Colonel Nickerson non-judicial punishment rather than run the risk of exposing the highly sensitive material that a trial by court-martial might likely involve.

We pass this suggestion along to you because of your genuine interest in this case and hope that you can get in a good lick or two for Colonel Nickerson, the Army and the country as a whole.

Thanking you and with kindest personal regards, I am

Always sincerely yours,

Robert K. Bell

Dear Buster:

I received your letter of recent date and I appreciate very much the suggestions contained therein. Although I am not as familiar with the case in question as are several of the other members of our delegation, I shall certainly pass on the information you have given me should the proper opportunity present itself.

It was good to hear from you, and I hope you will continue to call to my attention any issues in which you are interested. In the meantime, my very best personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Armistead I. Selden, Jr.
