Mr. Carl A. Elliott, M. C.
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Carl:

As you have no doubt noted, the Nickerson court-martial proceeding has been continued until 25 June 1957. While this would give us sufficient time to examine the highly sensitive material involved, provided it is made available to us at an early date, it will be interesting to watch the Defense Department's timing in the additional clearances that we have requested and the availability of this material to us.

It has occurred to Mr. Jenkins, Colonel Zimmer and Lt. Cole that now would be a very fine time to take any action, regardless of how casual or subtle the action, suggestions or comments might be, to the effect that the interest of the country would be infinitely better served if the Army would proceed to give Colonel Nickerson non-judicial punishment rather than run the risk of exposing the highly sensitive material that a trial by court-martial might likely involve.

We pass this suggestion along to you because of your genuine interest in this case and hope that you can get in a good lick or two for Colonel Nickerson, the Army and the country as a whole.

Thanking you and with kindest personal regards, I am

Always sincerely yours,

RKB:mfl

Dear Mr. Bell:

In the absense of Congressman Elliott, I am acknowledging receipt of your letter of May 8, 1957.

Mr. Elliott is in New Orleans, Louisiana holding hearings with his Committee on Education and Labor. Upon his return to the office next week, your letter will be brought to his attention.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Cora B. Marlowe
