Dear Bob and Carolyn:

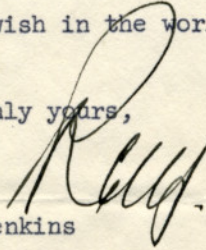

Carolyn, your sweet letter received a few days ago made me feel mighty good and proud that I know you and Robert.

Of course, I miss the two of you. I miss your charming hospitality and I miss old Bob's wit and humor.

Eva is going to give a party this fall during the football season for the principals in the Nickerson case, but we are not going to have it unless the Bells can come up. I want you and Bob to meet some of our friends. I want them to meet you. I will have to get the men off to themselves and let Bob tell some of his prime stories.

Take care of yourselves. With every good wish in the world,
I am

Affectionly yours,

Ray H. Jenkins
