INSTRUCTIONS TO CONDUCTORS

This report should be made in duplicate.

Conductor and party in charge of movement must sign report.

If any change in number of persons occurs after report is made out, proper notation should be made, and signed by Conductor as well as party in charge.

Conductor should send original copy of report to General Passenger Agent, Atlanta, Ga., and deliver duplicate to party in charge of movement.

An actual count of the passengers must be made by Conductor, regardless of whether movement is by regular or special train.

In addition to making this report, Conductor must endorse tickets to indicate the exact number of passengers handled; also points between which they are carried.
