American Ware as shown in the cut, is a beautiful line of blue marbled ware, porcelain-lined inside, strong, durable and carefully selected; keeps bright and clean to the delight of the house-wives; most economical because it out-wears all others; imparts a savor to the cooking that is not obtained by the use of other wares.

Its merits will appeal to the taste and desires of the trade and the sale of one piece will create a demand for every article in the assortment.
